

TESTIMONIALS

Rena Asano (Aiea)

“Hawaii Tokai is a suitable stepping stone for non-native English speakers who wish to transfer to an American university, as well as for native English speakers who wish to transfer to a Japanese university. Hawaii Tokai can open up many doors of opportunity for those who wish to become a more globalized citizen.”

Kaito Nishiji (Lahaina)

“Life at Hawaii Tokai is unforgettable and irreplaceable. Being able to meet with students beyond the United States is the best feeling and being on the path of becoming more fluent in Japanese is a life learning skill that I hope to use in the future.”

Aimee Nathan (Kahului)

“I am very grateful for my experiences at Hawaii Tokai and highly recommend the Discover East Asia program for anyone who wants to improve their Japanese skills, experience Japanese culture firsthand and make lifelong international friends.”

CAMPUS

FACILITIES

GATEWAY TO YOUR FUTURE

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Hawaii Tokai International College is an American two-year, liberal arts college accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (ACCJC-WASC). Hawaii Tokai offers two academic programs – an Associate of Arts degree program in the Liberal Arts and the College Preparatory program.

Liberal Arts Program

(Associate of Arts degree program)

This accredited program emphasizes active learning techniques, critical thinking and cross-cultural understanding in a small, supportive setting. This 60-unit program culminates in an Associate of Arts degree.

College Preparatory Program

(Academic ESL Program)

The College Preparatory program gives non-native speakers of English the opportunity to develop the academic skills necessary to succeed in the Liberal Arts program.

SCHEDULE

Hawaii Tokai offers a unique quarterly academic system. New students may choose to begin their studies at the start of any of the 10-week terms: Fall (September/October), Winter (January), Spring (April) or Summer (June/July).

At Hawaii Tokai, students earn semester credits in one 10-week term that are equivalent to one 16-week semester at other American colleges.

Hawaii Tokai students typically graduate in only five terms (15 months). Students with transfer credits (Early College, AP classes, etc.) can graduate even more quickly.

Student Transfers

Top schools to which students transfer: University of Hawaii, Hawaii Pacific University, University of Oregon, California State University, Minnesota State University, Temple University (Japan) and Tokai University (Japan).

Because the college is accredited by ACCJC-WASC, credits earned at Hawaii Tokai are transferable to any university or college in the United States.

Students come first at Hawaii Tokai. With a maximum class size of 18, faculty are able to give students excellent support and personal attention.

Hospitality and Tourism

Lay the groundwork to begin a career in the Hospitality and Tourism industry. This concentration includes hands-on experience and provides a competitive edge in this ever-changing job market.

Peace Studies

Explore the dimensions of conflict and peace. The Peace Studies Program seeks to bring students together who wish to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary for conflict resolution, risk management and peace-building. This concentration benefits students who want to major in areas such as International Relations, Conflict Management, Social Work, Psychology, and Education/Teaching.
